

Conference News

Saturday, Oct. 16

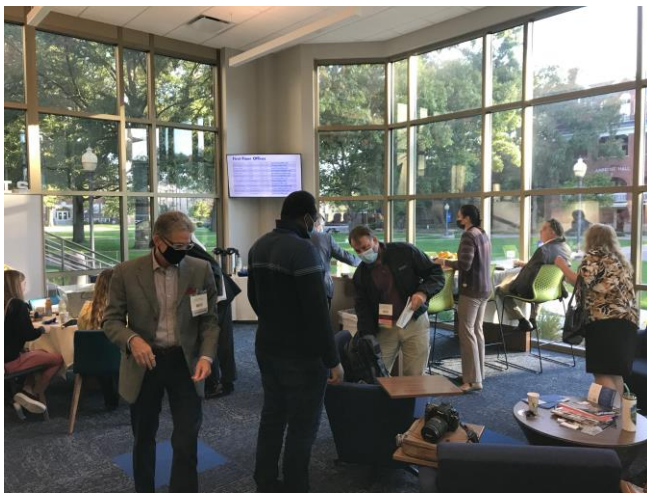

Parting thoughts from the 2021 Conference Chair, Dr. Arun Pillutla:

“As you depart the 2021 conference, I’d like to thank all of our presenters, volunteers, participants, board members, and St. Ambrose for a wonderful turnout this year. Congratulations to our presenters and best paper winners, and to all of the board members who have served with dedication over the past year. Your involvement has made the MAM conference an impactful and memorable experience for all. We hope to see you next year in Dearborn, Michigan.” - Arun

2021 MAM Board of Directors

A Sunny Breakfast

Participants enjoyed a pastry breakfast in the welcome center of McMullen Hall Saturday morning to start the day.

Publishing

New ideas are discussed in the session on Publishing in the Academy of Management Perspectives, AMP track session.

Creating an Inclusive Classroom

Presenters deliver concepts and ideas for creating an inclusive classroom to foster diversity, equity, and inclusion. Jennifer Collins, Angela Mile, Metrecia James, Sallie Sledge, and Millicent Nelson teamed up to produce this insightful presentation for instructions.

Traditional Paper

Participants in the Traditional Paper track for TIR-SP dove deeper into discussions and questions about presentation topics.