

John B. Cullen Best Paper Award

2023

The Midwest Academy of Management Conference John B. Cullen Best Paper Award was launched for the first time in 2021! The Best Paper Award is designed to recognize authors whose work represents original, creative, and rigorous approaches to address complex challenges in the business world. Winner(s) will represent the best theoretical and practical research impacting the future of business.

John B. Cullen

This best paper award is dedicated to John Brooks Cullen for his impactful research contributions to ethical and cross-cultural differences in management, and for his unwavering and selfless mentorship to doctoral students' success, and most importantly, for being an incredibly caring and generous human being.

Best Paper Award

A Midwest Academy of Management annual conference committee will select the paper for the John B. Cullen Best Paper Award. All full paper submissions to the MWAOM conference are eligible for consideration for this award

Winner(s) of the Best Paper Award:

1. Will receive a commemorative trophy and a monetary award of $400, presented during the awards ceremony of the conference.
2. Will be highlighted on the Midwest Academy of Management (MWAOM) website.
3. Will receive free registration to the MWAOM conference in the following year.

Selection criteria for committee consideration include originality, creativity, and rigor demonstrated in addressing complex challenges in the world of business. The selection committee will ensure that the research meets the highest standards in terms of academic integrity in its evaluation of research considered for this award. The committee reserves the right to revoke a Best Paper nomination in the circumstances of discovered plagiarism, academic dishonesty, or other infractions.

Exclusions: Papers submitted by 2023 selection committee members will not be considered for a Best Paper award.
